CELEBRATION OF LIFE

If I leave this world tomorrow,
my greatest legacy won't fit on a résumé
it calls me 'Mom.'

Don't bury me with achievements.
Bury me with a picture of my children.

The sleepless nights I survived,
the tiny hands I held,
the laughter,
the tears,

every moment spent raising them
is my true achievement.

They aren't just my kids.
They are my masterpiece.

My legacy.
My everything.

Thank you for joining us to celebrate the life of our beloved Jodie, for all your heart-warming messages and cards.
