Obituary

London Henrico McClure, unexpectedly passed away on Saturday, March 18, 2023, at the tender age of 21. The youngest of his siblings, London was born to Rohan Henrico McClure and Janet Bonello McClure on July 6, 2001, in Decatur, Georgia, and was living in Orlando, Florida.

At the time of his death, London was a Presidential Honor Roll student at Valencia College. He worked as a Seaworld lifeguard, Hertz rental car reservationist, Whataburger cashier, and Academy of Etiquette and Protocol camp counselor. Additionally, he volunteered at the Orlando Union Rescue Mission. London loved music, and composing lyrics, and inherited his parents' passions for reading and traveling. London was very family-oriented and enjoyed making silly videos and performing for his family and friends. He was a sports enthusiast: he played football, basketball, and tennis, and enjoyed swimming at the beach. Above all, London loved the Creator. He found immense joy and peace in studying the Bible and serving others.

London leaves an immense legacy of love, compassion, and joy to his parents, sisters, Charleen and Ronet McClure, and brother, Darryl McClure; paternal grandfather, Alexander Lloyd McClure; maternal grandmother, Pearl Millicent Spencer; as well as Uncles: Earlston McClure, Dudley Bonello, Laurel Lowers, Neville Lowers, and Cedric Salmon, Aunts: Charmaine McClure, Karen Garrett, Kameka White, Hazel Bonello, Ruth Jarrett, Vivienne Ferguson, Marvet Brooks, Avril Brown, Claudia "Lovan" Cousins, Judith Haughton, and Davol Byroo; Grand-Aunts: Shirley Holden, Marjorie Gong, and Sharon Damon. Grand-Uncle: Anthony Holden; countless cousins, family, and friends worldwide.

Amazing Grace

Chorus:

Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

Verse 1:

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Verse 2:

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
This grace that brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home

Verse 3:

When we've been here ten thousand years

Bright, shining as the sun

We've no less days to sing God's praise

Than when we first begun

Chorus:

Amazing grace how sweet the sound

That saved a wretch like me

I once was lost, but now I'm found

Was blind but now I see
