

Jeremy K. Look, of Meadow Vista, died Friday, August 20, in South San Francisco. He was 44 years old.

Jeremy was born May 15, 1977, in Rhinelander, Wisconsin. He graduated from Monticello High School in 1995 and began his college education at Parkland College in Champaign, Illinois. He enlisted in the United States Navy in 1997, where he served aboard the U.S.S. Abraham Lincoln during Operation Enduring Freedom. Petty Officer First Class Jeremy Look was honorably discharged in 2008. He continued his education, earning a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2012. Jeremy joined the Drug Enforcement Administration as a Technical Investigative Specialist in 2015, where he was employed until his death.

Jeremy loved all things technical and was proud to be a member of the DEA's drone program committee. Outside of work, he volunteered his time as an online group administrator who assisted Navy veterans in securing employment. Jeremy was a culinary master with his meat smoker, and we will miss his amazing holiday dinners. He loved music, especially Seattle grunge, and was always up for a concert or a music festival. He also liked to travel, and of his international travels, he had enjoyed Australia the most. Jeremy enjoyed spending time with his family, and he loved them very much.

To live in the hearts we leave behind is to live forever.
-Carl Sagan

It is not length of life, but depth of life.
-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Our death is not an end if we have lived on in our children and the younger generation.
For they are us; our bodies are only wilted
leaves on the tree of life.
