

A NOTE OF THANKS

We'd like to thank everyone who was a part of Patricia's beautiful life. It is friends and family like you who have blessed us through the years with your love and friendship. Patricia would be honored that you are here to celebrate her life.

IN LOVING MEMORY
PATRICIA EVANS

October 30, 1959 - July 9, 2022

SAINT KATERI CHURCH
SPARTA, NJ

Patricia taught music for over 30 years in the public-school districts of Long Valley, Roxbury, Bedminster, and Montague. From 1997 through 2001, Patricia worked in the Concert Artist division of Steinway & Sons of Philadelphia, facilitating legendary concert artist's performances in greater Philadelphia.

Most recently, Patricia's passion to foster love through music was most realized as she became the Music & Arts Developer for Abilities of Northwest Jersey, a non-profit organization serving the needs of adults with disabilities. Here she had the great privilege of creating, developing, and introducing music and arts curriculum to this important Organization.

Patricia's love transformed the lives of everyone she encountered. She brought a bounty of beauty to everything she did...with her music, her smile and unbounding love. She had a remarkable ability to connect with people, share herself and evoke that same spirit of love in each person she knew.

Patricia was preceded in death by her father, William and her mother, Eileen. She is survived by her husband Christian Evans, her daughter Holly Eileen Hill, her beloved bonus son, Taylor Christian Evans, and her bonus daughter Adison Jean Evans. Her extended family includes her brother Eric Oswin and his wife Debra Oswin, her brother William R. Oswin II and his wife Terri Oswin and her beloved nieces and nephew; Doug Oswin, Katie Oswin McConnel, Eric Oswin II, William R. Oswin III and Christopher Oswin.

Please consider a donation in memory of Patricia, to further the work that she began at Abilities of Northwest Jersey:
