

Isaiah 40: 3-8

A voice of one calling:
“In the wilderness prepare the way for the LORD;
make straight in the desert
a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be raised up,
every mountain and hill made low;
the rough ground shall become level,
the rugged places a plain.

And the glory of the Lord will be revealed,
and all people will see it together.
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

A voice says, “Cry out.”
And I said, “What shall I cry?”

“All people are like grass,
and all their faithfulness is like the flowers of the field.

The grass withers and the flowers fall,
because the breath of the Lord blows on them.
Surely the people are grass.

The grass withers and the flowers fall,
but the word of our God endures forever.”

Obituary

Dave was born February 18, 1953, in Harvey, ND, to Gilbert and Lorraine (Heisler) Schnase. He was initially raised on the family farm "London Place", then moved to Circle Pines, MN. Eventually, his mother relocated to Drake, where he attended school until graduation in 1971.

Following his graduation, Dave went to United States Marine Corps Boot Camp in San Diego, CA. Following his meritorious graduation, he was transferred to Okinawa, Japan, where he spent the next 14 months. After his honorable discharge from the military, Dave spent time traveling and eventually, he found himself back in Drake where he married his high school sweetheart Wanda Volk.

Dave started working for Job Service North Dakota in 1984 and was promoted to Appeals Referee in 1993, where he served in that capacity until retiring in March 2015.

Dave loved his Savior, music, his guitars, carpentry, fishing, and spending time with family. His great sense of humor brought much fun to his work, people in the general public, and the employees at the retail stores where he spent too much time visiting.

Dave is survived by his bride, Wanda; children, Lindsey of Roseville, MN, and Jamie Schell (Bismarck); siblings, Rita (Dave) Tischer, Randy (Naomi) Schnase, Val Ziegler, Wanda (Craig) Mozley, Pam (Don) Allan, Merlin (Cyndi) Schnase, and Laurie (Henry) Rieniets; step-siblings, Tom Schmidtgal and Jeanne Hochstetler; numerous nieces and nephews whom he loved greatly; and his friend Lanee.

He was preceded in death by his parents and stepfather Ted Schmidgal; nephew, Eric Ziegler; and his beloved kitty, Olivia.
