- A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY -

Chi Xiong Vang (Ntxhais Xyooj, Puj Nchaiv) was born on May 4, 1941 to Nrum Vaaj (mother) and Vaam Xaab Xyooj (father) in the Hmong village called Haav Qhuav in Luang Prabang Province, Laos. At age 81, Chi regrettably passed away on February 28, 2023.

In 1957, Chi married Fai Yee Vang (whom she joined in heaven). Together they lived in the village, Qaab Tsua Laam Theeb in the same province until 1972. From there they moved to the village, Nqaaj Laag Zeb near Xayaboury, Laos.

In 1976, Chi and her family moved from Laos to the Soptuang Refugee Camp in Thailand. While in Camp Soptuang, she filed immigration paperwork to the US. Then on February 24, 1980, Chi and her family arrived at Rutland, Vermont. Two years later they moved to Minneapolis, MN and resided there for the remainder of Chi's life.

Chi was a devout member to Coon Rapids Hmong Alliance church, an expert gardener, an excellent seamstress, a driven and caring mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She loved everyone and gave her absolute best. Chi's last message to her family was, "Remember to love each other."

Those left to cherish her memory includes her brother Dlaab Yeej; all of her sister-in-laws; her nieces, nephews and their children; her daughters Doua, Suenie, Mai Pang, Mai Yang, Kang Zoua, and Gaonou; her sons Peter, David, Pua and Pong; her 35 grandchildren and 16 great-grand children.
