THE POWER OF LOVE

Love is stronger than death. It can never fully separate us from those we love, and it can never steal the beautiful memories we created together.

OBITUARY

Joyce M. Carn, age 74, passed away peacefully on January 27, 2022. She was born on July 31, 1947, in Bamberg, South Carolina to Joseph and Wilhelmina Carn.

Joyce was a social butterfly who enjoyed playing bingo, attending service at Bethany Baptist Church, listening to Motown music, reminiscing with her sisters about the good ol' days and spending time with her daughter. She had a love for life and was fiercely independent.

For many years Joyce worked at Centro, in Syracuse, NY. Joyce's outgoing personality and strong work ethic afforded her long lasting relationships with many of her former co-workers. Her outlook on life was an inspiration to many. Although she was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis (MS) in the 1990s, she did not let the physical limitations caused by MS slow her down. She would often say, "I just get up and try again."

Joyce was a living example of a person committed to living a full and meaningful life. She will be remembered for her "tell it like it is" personality, yummy banana and zucchini bread, infectious laugh and warm smile that would light up a room. She will be missed by many, but her memory lives on with all the people that she touched during her time on this Earth.

Joyce was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Lorraine Millhouse, Barbara Dickerson, and Gloria Carn; brother-in-law Mickey Millhouse; Joyce is survived by her beloved daughter Kaiti M. Robertson (Dwayne Robertson); her sisters whom she loved deeply, Annie Lee Gray, and Georgia Page (Ron Page); brother-in-law Jessie Dickerson; former husband Roger W. Torrence, Jr.; and a host of nieces and nephews and friends.
