

In Loving Memory

Hall of Fame Honors

We honor each and every one of you who've joined us in this remembrance of Ken. Behind every star player is a bullpen of strength. Thank you all the fans who supported us during warm ups, long practices, extra innings, and through sponsorship. The game may be over but the season continues through our memories of Ken. Don't stop believin!

With Gratitude,

The Brunetti and Tung Families

Kenneth Andrew Brunetti

July 15, 1964 – April 26, 2025

1st Inning – Pre-Service Piano

Jonah Levine (nephew)

2nd Inning – Introduction

Gerald J. Brunetti (father)

3rd Inning – Remembrances

Andrea Tung, Natalia Brunetti, and Keenan Brunetti
(spouse, daughter, and son)

Matt Mitchell and Sanjeev Sanghvi (UPenn friends)

4th Inning – Song (Light Years, Pearl Jam)

Andre, Nick, and Kevin Brunetti (cousins)

5th Inning – Remembrances

Zach Georgopoulos, Larry King, and Sean McKinney
(law school friends)

Barbara M. Brunetti, Andrea Brunetti, and Maria Ellison
(mother, middle sister, and youngest sister)

6th Inning – Slide Show

7th Inning – Remembrances

Bill Lowery and Jerry Schreiberstein (law firm colleagues)

Gregory Rougeau and Phil Nichol森
(partner and former colleague)

Cherilyn Brunetti and Chris Brunetti
(oldest sister and brother)

8th Inning – Closing Remarks

Gerald J. Brunetti

9th Inning – Catered Reception

Food – Drink – Music – Open Mic

Kenisms:

"Like a rat across the frozen tundra..."

"Negatory Alpher"

"I yam who I yam"

"To Hell in a handbasket"

"I don't give a rat's ass"

"There's a zero percent chance"

"You can kiss my white Irish ass"

"Relaxes!"