

Order of Service - Beloved Lydia Jean "Lyddy Jean" Stuhr

1:00 - 1:05pm: Welcome by Family Friend and Pastor / Rev. Thomas Woods - Short words of life celebration.

1:05 - 1:20pm: Amy Riggs (loving daughter), Reading of Eulogy/special message from the family.

1:20 - 1:30pm: Singing of Amazing Grace by nieces, Kayla Ost and Brooke Hinkle

1:30 - 1:50: Short sermon from Pastor / Rev. Thomas Woods

1:50 - 2:00pm: Special Slideshow Presentation

2:00 - 2:15pm: Reading of scripture outside by burial site. Special poems by Lydia, and or family members will also be shared.

2:15 - 2:45pm: Anyone wanting to say words about Lydia will be welcome to do so before her ashes are laid to rest.

2:45 - 3:00pm: Final words of thanks from immediate family, any final words of reflection.

Reception at: The Old Spaghetti Factory in Roseville to follow service.

Lydia was a hero to so many, she wrote this song as a message to all about this day which she knew would come:

*Please no weeping only joy for me
For my blessed Savior I will see
I will have a mansion won and All my Toil and work is done
Please no weeping only Joy for me*

*I will see my Dear loved ones
They will meet me at the door
I will wear a robe of white
Have a crown forever more
All my cares and burdens I'll lay down no more to be
Please no weeping only joy for me.*

By Lydia Jean Stubr

