

Celebrating
THE LIFE OF

ERIN SULLIVAN

SEP 20, 1981 - MAY 27, 2024

Obituary

Erin was born on September 20, 1981 to Michael and Meg Sullivan in Tacoma, Washington. She grew up in Federal Way, Washington and attended St. Vincent de Paul Elementary School and Bellarmine Preparatory School, Class of 2000. She married Neil Virnig in 2007 and they had one child, Mikey, born in 2012. They lived in Lynnwood, Washington. Erin and Neil divorced in 2022, but they remained a close team in co-parenting Mikey.

Erin worked as a paraeducator at Chase Lake Elementary in the Edmonds School District working with special-needs students.

Erin had a keen sense of humor and an infectious laugh. She was an avid football fan. She loved dogs and cats. She had deep bonds with her immediate and extended family. Auntie Erin was especially loved by all her nieces and nephews.

Erin was predeceased by her mother Meg Huff. She is survived by her son Mikey Virnig, son Brent Firkins (adopted by Todd and Cyndi Firkins), father Michael Sullivan, step-mother Patty Sullivan, sister Shauna Sullivan Stewart (Ryan), step-sister Jaime Harriman (Uriah), step-brother Matt Gleason (Jacqueline), step-brother Sean Gleason (Brittany), step-brother Devin Gleason (Kelsie), step-father Jeff Huff, step-sister Marissa Flood (Jon), step-brother Marshall Huff (Mackenzie) and many nieces and nephews.
