WONDERFUL FATHER & FANTASTIC FRIEND

The world lost Kent the evening of July 14th as he rested comfortably at Methodist Hospital in St. Louis Park.

He was a person that made sure that those close to him were loved. His creativity was not only expressed in his work, but also in his advice and conversations. He always had a fresh perspective and a keen view from outside of the box. Besides his work, he also volunteered for many organizations. Kent was one of those rare individuals that strived to leave the world a place better than how he found it.

ADVENTURES WITH DAD

The best thing to hear Kent say was "let's go have an adventure." When you heard that, you knew you were in for a great time. Even if the destination ended up being lackluster, the memory of the journey was unforgettable. Your face and belly would ache from the laughing and it was impossible to leave the encounter not feeling loved.

SINCERE THANKS

Thank you for your kind expression of sympathy and thoughtfulness. It is deeply appreciated and will always be remembered.
