In loving memory

Daniel "Danny" Jervoso, beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, lived his life with unbridled enthusiasm. Known for his humor, generosity, and creative spirit, Danny touched many lives with his unique charm and deep love for family.

Born in Mandaluyong, Philippines in 1952, he was an adventurous spirit. Danny enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1973 as a way to immigrate to the United States and provide for his family. After 10 years in the US Navy, he worked at the US Postal Service until his retirement in 2013. Danny embraced retirement with a passion for travel, especially after getting his first RV in 2004.

As a traveler, and avid RVer, you could find Danny along with his wife, Julie, camping on the beach at Bodega Bay, Delta Shores, or flying to exotic destinations like Hawaii and the Philippines, or on road trips to Oregon or Las Vegas.

Danny's artistry, love for camping, and resourcefulness were just some of the ways he expressed his joyful and full life.

Danny's greatest legacy is the love he shared with his family and the values he lived by—resilience, pride, and compassion.

Dad

Thank you for the beautiful way you lived your life—with love, laughter, and endless curiosity. You taught us to savor every moment, whether it was gathered around a table filled with food, sitting by a campfire under the stars, or exploring the open road with excitement.

Your love for family was the heart of everything you did. You brought us together, made us feel seen and loved, and showed us the power of being present for one another. Your joy in the simple things—sharing a meal, fishing, hanging out at the RV, sharing stories, watching the sunrise—reminded us that happiness is often found in the everyday.

Thank you for showing us the beauty of nature, the thrill of travel, and the value of time spent together. You lived with an open heart and a deep appreciation for life's journey. That spirit will stay with us, always.

The way you touched our lives made a difference not just for family, but for friends too.

Thank You

Prayer of St. Francis

Make me a channel of your peace

Where there is hatred, let me bring your love

Where there is injury, you pardon, Lord,

And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace,

Where there's despair in life, let me bring joy

When there is darkness, only light

And where there's sadness, ever joy.

Make me a channel of you peace

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

In giving of ourselves that we receive,

And in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Oh Master grant that I may never seek

So much to be consoled as to console,

To be understood as to understand,

To be loved, as to love, with all my soul.
