Message: Pastor Gary Woodard
Praise: Father, I Adore You
Special Music: Ms. Heather Johnson

Jessica was a beloved daughter, sister, niece, aunt, cousin, and friend and we're honored to have you here, remembering her life.

Thank you for joining us in remembering and celebrating the life of Jessica Cadriel. Your kindness and love towards our family during this difficult time has not gone unnoticed. We are eternally grateful to have so many in our community.

Father, I Adore You

From the time Jessica first heard this song, in chapel at Fuller Seminary, she loved it for its simple truth. She described it as a simple, paired-down song of worship that acknowledges the fullness of who God is.

Father, I adore you.
Lay my life before you.
How I love you

Jesus, I adore You.
Lay my life before You.
How I love You

Spirit, I love you.
Lay my life before you.
How I love You.

I'll Fly Away

When Jessica began to think about this service, the first thing she asked was that her beloved friend Heather sing at it.

During this past year, Jessica found this song to be a support to hold onto when things were rough, reminding her that the difficult days would not last, but the joy of being healed, whole, and with the Lord would. She then decided this should be the song Heather sang.

Please feel free to sing along if you like.

Jessica wanted today to be a day of praise.
