SOME GLAD MORNING

*Some glad morning, we shall see Jesus in the air,
Coming after you and me, joy is ours to share.
What rejoicing there will be when the saints shall rise,
Headed for that jubilee yonder in the skies.*

*Oh, what singing, Oh, what shouting
On that happy morning when we all shall rise.
Oh, what glory, Hallelujah!
When we meet our blessed Savior in the skies.*

*Seems that now I almost see all the sainted dead
Rising for that jubilee that is just ahead.
In the twinkling of an eye, changed with them to be,
All the living saints to fly to that jubilee.*

*Oh, what singing, Oh, what shouting
On that happy morning when we all shall rise.
O, what glory, Hallelujah!
When we meet our blessed Savior in the skies.*

*When with all the heavenly host we begin to sing,
Singing in the Holy Ghost, how the heavens will ring
Millions there will join the song, with them we shall be,
Praising Christ thru ages long, heaven's jubilee.*

*Oh, what singing, Oh, what shouting
On that happy morning when we all shall rise.
O, what glory, Hallelujah!
When we meet our blessed Savior in the skies.*

SCRIPTURE READING:
PSALM 90:1-12

- <sup>1</sup> Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.
- <sup>2</sup> Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
- <sup>3</sup> You turn people back to dust, saying, "Return to dust, you mortals."
- <sup>4</sup> A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night.
- <sup>5</sup> Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death—they are like the new grass of the morning:
- <sup>6</sup> In the morning it springs up new, but by evening it is dry and withered.
- <sup>7</sup> We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation.
- <sup>8</sup> You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence.
- <sup>9</sup> All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan.
- <sup>10</sup> Our days may come to seventy years, or eighty, if our strength endures; yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away.
- <sup>11</sup> If only we knew the power of your anger! Your wrath is as great as the fear that is your due.
- <sup>12</sup> Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN JESUS

*What a Friend we have in Jesus,
 All our sins and griefs to bear!
 What a privilege to carry
 Everything to God in prayer!
 O what peace we often forfeit,
 O what needless pain we bear,
 All because we do not carry
 Everything to God in prayer!*

*Have we trials and temptations?
 Is there trouble anywhere?
 We should never be discouraged,
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.
 Can we find a friend so faithful
 Who will all our sorrows share?
 Jesus knows our every weakness,
 Take it to the Lord in prayer.*

*Are we weak and heavy-laden,
 Cumbered with a load of care?
 Precious Savior, still our refuge
 Take it to the Lord in prayer;
 Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
 Take it to the Lord in prayer;
 In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
 Thou wilt find a solace there.*

SCRIPTURE READING:
PSALM 116:1-15

- <sup>1</sup> I love the Lord, for he heard my voice; he heard my cry for mercy.
<sup>2</sup> Because he turned his ear to me, I will call on him as long as I live.
<sup>3</sup> The cords of death entangled me, the anguish of the grave came over me;
I was overcome by distress and sorrow.
<sup>4</sup> Then I called on the name of the Lord: "Lord, save me!"
<sup>5</sup> The Lord is gracious and righteous; our God is full of compassion.
<sup>6</sup> The Lord protects the unwary; when I was brought low, he saved me.
<sup>7</sup> Return to your rest, my soul, for the Lord has been good to you.
<sup>8</sup> For you, Lord, have delivered me from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling,
<sup>9</sup> that I may walk before the Lord in the land of the living
<sup>10</sup> I trusted in the Lord when I said, "I am greatly afflicted";
<sup>11</sup> in my alarm I said, "Everyone is a liar."
<sup>12</sup> What shall I return to the Lord for all his goodness to me?
<sup>13</sup> I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.
<sup>14</sup> I will fulfil my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.
<sup>15</sup> Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful servants.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF A DEVOTED HUSBAND, FATHER, AND SHEPHERD.

Today, we honour and celebrate the life of a man whose life was a testament to love, faith, and service. A pastor whose words brought comfort, a chef whose meals nourished more than just the body, a tailor who stitched beauty into the fabric of everyday life, and a father who shaped the hearts of four incredible children.

Since 30th April 1966, he walked hand in hand with his beloved wife, sharing joys, triumphs, and trials. Through every season, his love remained steadfast, offering strength when illness came, offering care when it was most needed.

His journey on this earth was filled with purpose helping, guiding, and uplifting others. And though dementia may have clouded his final days, it could never dim the light of his spirit nor the love he carried in his heart for the Lord or for his family.

Now, he has gone ahead, beyond the horizon. His presence will be missed, but his legacy - his kindness, his devotion, his unwavering faith will live on in the lives he touched.

Rest in peace, beloved husband, father, and friend. You have finished your race with honour, and your love will forever remain. Until we meet again!

Your loving wife
Sis Gloria Rozetta
