Obituary

Steven Earl Jones was born in Richmond, California, on December 13, 1956. He was the second of four children to Wilbert James Jones and Annie Jewel Jones. He married the love of his life, Sabina Lacy, on April 15, 1978, in Oakland, California. Their union was blessed with two children: Brandy Shantel and Lamar Rashad.

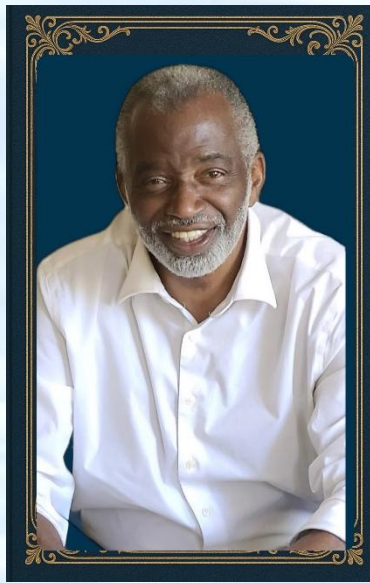

Steven, affectionately known as Steve, began working for PG&E in 1977 and dedicated 44 years of service to the company. He became well known for his pleasant demeanor, strong work ethic, and unwavering willingness to help others, regardless of their age.

To many, he was lovingly called "Uncle Steve." He had a gift for bringing people together. He enjoyed entertaining guests, playing cards, camping with family and friends, watching sports – especially the Golden State Warriors, and hitting the golf course. And if you knew him long enough, chances are you would have had the pleasure of tasting his famous BBQ, for which he was well known.

What Steve was best known for, however, was his unwavering faith and dedication to his God, Jehovah. He was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on August 22, 1972. As a faithful servant, he took his ministry seriously. His diligence and self-sacrificing spirit led to his appointment as an elder in the Christian Congregation, where he provided loving guidance and support. Steve was actively involved in the public ministry, the Local Design/Construction (LDC) program, and the Special Metropolitan Witnessing Work. He remained steadfast in his faith and loyal to Jehovah until his death on March 31, 2025.

Steve is preceded in death by his beloved daughter, Brandy Shantel Jones, his parents, Wilbert and Annie Jones, his Brothers, Gary Jones and Walter (Red) Ford, and his parents-in-law, F.E. and Lucy Lacy.

Left to cherish his life and beautiful memories are his devoted wife, Sabina Jones; his loving son, Lamar Rashad Jones; his brother, Donald Jones (Diana); his sister, Sherry Jones; and his nephews, Derek Jones (Ashlee), Leopold Lacy, John Walker, Jr. (Kim), Darrell Walker (Crystal), Cameron Roper, and Damon Roper. His nieces include Alise Jones, Natalya Lacy, and Donna Jubert. He is also survived by his brothers-in-law, Xavier Lacy and Leopold Lacy (Florence), as well as his sisters-in-law, Elizabeth Ann Walker (John), Wilma Branch, and Pamela Jones. He will be fondly remembered by a host of relatives and dear friends who will forever hold him in their hearts.

“My 'bae,' as I affectionately called Steve, when he fell asleep, I lost my best friend—my joy, my comfort, my companion, my love, my confidant. The one I leaned on year after year for some 47 years. His absence leaves a big void in my heart, especially not being able to serve Jehovah together as we always did. That is my greatest loss. The pain runs deep, but Jehovah knows. He is the One holding me up and carrying me through each day. He sees every tear I cry. I pray that very soon, these tears of pain will be replaced with tears of joy, on that beautiful day when he awakens. My dearest desire is to be right there when that moment comes. And when it does, Steve, Rashad, and I will also be ready to welcome Brandy. Until then...” – Sabina

“Losing a loved one, especially a brother, is incredibly difficult. Steve was more than a brother. He was a friend, a confidant, and a source of strength for me as a young man. In my quiet moments, I reflect on the joy he brought into my life. While my dear brother rests in peace, he will always be missed. But we will shortly be reunited, and I’ll see him soon. His journey on earth will continue in perfect health when Jesus awakens him.”

– Don Jones

“If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service Until my relief comes.”– Job 14: 14, 15

Special Acknowledgements

The Jones and Lacy family would like to express our sincere appreciation for the beautiful flowers, thoughtful plants, warm meals, comforting phone calls, and kind words shared during this time. We are especially grateful to all the loving ones who assisted with Steve's care. There are no words to fully express how much your love, support, and prayers have meant to us. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

“Give thanks for everything.” – 1 Thess 5:18

With heartfelt gratitude,

The Jones and Lacy Families
