

"A Special Person"

Beautiful eyes, a tender heart
And a smile that's very sweet
Before you came into my life
It was incomplete

You always make me happy
You make my world go round
In anything we do together
Joy I sure to be found

I just want you to know
And hope that you can see
You're a very special person
That God has shared with me.

Reflections of His Life

Mr. D'Markus Lorenzo Jefferson was born December 5, 1990 in Augusta, Georgia to Michelle L. Love and Mark Jefferson. D'Markus peacefully transitioned into eternal rest on February 12, 2022 at his home. D'Markus was reared in a Christian home and attended Belvedere Church of God. He was formally educated in the Aiken County Public School District, where he graduated from Midland Valley High School, Graniteville, South Carolina. Upon his graduation, D'Markus became gainfully employed at Blimpie Sub Shop and The Salvation Army.

D'Markus had a strong passion for music and was a huge fan of great artists such as Donnie McClurkin, Mary J. Blige and Michael Jackson. He enjoyed watching comic shows and movies, especially those that were produced by Tyler Perry. He was also known for always being prompt wherever he went. He took pride in his appearance and enjoyed dressing well. Most importantly, D'Markus will be forever remembered for his love of God, and attending Sunday morning worship service.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his beloved mother, Michelle L. Love; his father, Mark L. Jefferson; one brother, Marquez L. Jefferson (Olivia Barefoot); a niece, Yamara S. Jefferson; maternal grandfather, Michael L. Love; an aunt, Felicia R. Love and an uncle, Tony L. Love and a host of other relatives.
