About Mark

Mark will be remembered for his kind heart, sense of humor, cheeky comments, and playful spirit. He had a deep love for the beach, sunshine, and for cruising in his car with Pom Pom by his side.

We had a running joke that “Mark could not be trusted,” because he was always up to something.

Most days Mark could be found in the garage (pronounced GAR-ij in his British accent), happily putzing around with his cars - often adding a decal or working on his latest project. He was someone who had big ideas and always found a way to bring them to life.

One of his proudest creations was deciding to splatter-paint his car, which quickly became his true masterpiece.

We never thought he could top having a gold car, but he proved us all wrong.

One day, while we were all together at a red light, a woman pulled up beside us, looked over, and asked, “Is that a Banksy?” From that moment on, Mark proudly embraced his new identity as an artist.

He was reMARKable, and he will forever remain in our hearts.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted”
(Matthew 5:4).

Eternal sovereign God, creator of heavens and earth, full of grace and love, we praise You. You are our rock and strength; you are our Saviour, Redeemer and the hope of eternal life. Lord, you are close to the brokenhearted and bind up their wounds; you bless and comfort those who grieve in times of loss and give them peace.

“I AM the resurrection and life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die” (John 11:25). Amen
