

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

"I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
of happy times and laughing
times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave behind when life is done."

A loving father and a loyal friend

Patrick Barrow spent many years selling, connecting, loving the community, music, vibrancy and natural wonders of Prospect Park Drummer's Grove. He sold his handmade jewelry, handmade clothing and other unique goods inspired by his heritage of Trinidad & Tobago and Africa. All that encountered him was engulfed by his spirit, stories and his crafts. Patrick Barrow was a man of the Earth and a lover of all. It is only natural to commemorate his life, love of culture, people, life's natural wonders, and his imprint on this Earth. This bench will forever be in his memory.

Patrick will be fondly remembered for his kind words and kinder heart.
