Sleep, My Brother
By T. Hutchinson

I wish you sweet sleep, my brother dear.
Although there's so much that you've left bare. I hate that you had to endure such pain on my mind, your saddened eyes have left a stain. I want to know what crossed your mind Unspoken words you've left behind, undone things we'll never do, no sharing thoughts you never knew.
A peace has fallen upon your head, a taste of sorrow we have been fed it really is like a hole in our lives. One swiftly dug but carved out by knives. But I have hope that those sleeping will rise The Bible says that God will open their eyes. No suffering, sickness, yes not even pain, Those who did good, eternal life they'll gain. So... sleep on my brother, sleep tight For now, with you the sky is night. But after night will come daybreak
Therefore I will wait hoping to see you awake.

Weep Not For Me
By an Unknown Author

Weep not for me though I have gone into that gentle night Grieve if you will, but not for long upon my soul's sweet flight I am at peace, my souls at rest there is no need for tears For with your love I was so blessed For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not The fear is now all gone Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory, I live on Remember not my fight for breath Remember not the strife Please do not dwell upon my death But celebrate my life.

There are not enough words to express how thankful we are for your sympathy and kindness in our time of sorrow. The support and comfort you provided will always be remembered.
