THE LIFE OF

Consider it pure joy, my brothers whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.
James 1:2,3,4

JEFFREY MICHAEL KILLOUGH

03.30.1988 to 01.18.2021

*A limb has fallen from the Family Tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.*

Jeffrey "Jeff" Michael Killough, age 32, of Branson, Missouri, passed away on January 18, 2021. Jeff was born on March 30, 1988, in Grants, New Mexico, to Travis Bonell and Barbara Ann (Candelaria) Killough.

A musician at heart, Jeff played, the guitar, wrote lyrics, and recorded songs. Known as the "The Math Guy", Jeff was a quick problem solver and was also into cars. Most of Jeff's years in Branson, he worked as front desk audit and front desk manager in the hotel industry. His most recent job was in the printing area at Branson Tri-Lakes News, where he felt a special connection with his father and Papa Jerry, who also worked in the printing industry for years. He loved the Lord and served many years in his home congregation, in New Mexico and in Branson. Jeff's favorite moments in life were times with his kids and family. Even though he was a joker and pun-master, he was known to many to have a heart of gold and to have a deep soul. Jeff was very proud of his name and his heritage. Jeffrey will live on, through the lives of his children.

Jeff is survived by family in Branson, Missouri: wife Hannah Killough of the home; four children: Dominic, Vallah, Nova, and Jefferson; parents: Travis and Barbara Killough; sister, Stephanie Killough; nieces and nephew: Rylee, Gracie, and Parker. Grandparents, Monico and Mary Candelaria of Albuquerque, NM and Nana Sherian Killough of Grants, NM. Also many uncles, aunts and cousins.

He is preceded in death by his papa, Jerry Killough, and aunt, Shauna Ferguson.
