Excerpt from Romance Sonámbulo by Federico García Lorca

En español:

Verde que te quiero verde.
Verde viento. Verdes ramas.
El barco sobre la mar,
y el caballo en la montaña.
Con la sombra en la cintura
ella sueña en su baranda,
verde carne, pelo verde,
con ojos de fría plata.
Bajo la luna gitana,
las cosas la están mirando
y ella no puede mirarlas.
Verde que te quiero verde.
Verde viento. Verdes ramas.
El barco sobre la mar,
y el caballo en la montaña.

In English:

Green, how I want you green.
Green wind. Green branches.
The boat upon the sea,
and the horse on the mountain.
With the shadow at her waist,
she dreams on her balcony,
green flesh, green hair,
with eyes of icy silver.
Beneath the gypsy moon,
the things are watching her,
and she cannot watch them back.
Green, how I want you green.
Green wind. Green branches.
The boat upon the sea,
and the horse on the mountain.

Speaker:

Elizabeth Fraser, daughter, Class of '89

Runner's Blessing

By Daniel Mark Extrom

May your wind be always rhythmic.

May your heart be always strong.

May your road be always beautiful.

May it never seem too long.

May your legs be always faithful.

May your feet be never sore.

May your mind be always peaceful.

May you run forevermore.

“Travel not to find yourself, but to remember who you’ve been all along.”
