Obituary

George Lopez Ramirez's journey began on August 12, 1930, in Miami, Arizona. As the son of Mexican immigrants Jorge Ramirez and Adela Lopez, he was raised during the Great Depression.

Despite growing up in poverty, George became a pillar of strength for his siblings, embracing his role as protector with unwavering love and dedication.

In Miami, George met the love of his life, Concha Aguilar. They married in 1950, building a life filled with faith, family, and resilience. Together, they raised their children—Patsy, George “Mike,” John, and Cathy—and created a home that became a sanctuary for both immediate and extended family. Their home on Shadyside Avenue in Whittier, California, was a place of love, laughter, and tradition.

Providing for his family was more than a responsibility—it was a source of fulfillment, and his strong work ethic left a lasting impression on those around him. George was a dedicated worker, spending over 30 years as a machinist at W.G. Wiggins. Through hard work and perseverance, he advanced to the role of supervisor, a position he held with pride.

Even in his later years, George faced challenges with courage, overcoming cancer twice and continuing to care for his beloved Concha until her passing. He lived a life of resilience, love, and faith, leaving behind a legacy that will be cherished by all who knew him. Though he is no longer with us, his spirit lives on in the hearts of his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and the countless lives he touched.

Our dad

Our dad was a man of quiet strength, boundless love, and unwavering dedication. He taught us the value of hard work, the importance of family, and the power of resilience in the face of life's challenges. Though he is no longer with us in body, his spirit continues to shine through each of us—his children, siblings, nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and all who were blessed to know him. His legacy lives on in the hearts of those who proudly carry his name and embody his values. Dad, say hello to Mom and John for us. Until we meet again, know that we love you deeply and miss you every day.

Love your kids,
Mike, Patsy and Cathy.
